

School of Landscape Architecture Guidelines for Satisfactory Academic Progress

Year one

- Substantial progress in completion of required graded courses.
- Filing of Plan of Study with Graduate College by beginning of second semester.
- Identification of area of research interest by the beginning of second year.

Year two

- Continue progress in completion of required graded courses.
- Identification of research topic and faculty committee by the end of spring semester.

Year three

- Continue completion of required graded courses.
- Completion of all Master's Research work.
- Filing of Completion of Degree Requirements form with Graduate College indicating schedule for completion of required graded course work.

Year four (if needed)

- Completion of Master's Thesis or Master's Report.

Note: Deviation from this normal schedule of progress must be approved by the School Director.